

Dr. Steven Treon, M.D., Ph.D.
Prof. of Medicine, Harvard Medical School
Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
Director, Bing Center for WM

Hi Friends,

(Save the Date Saturday, April 1st, 11 AM)

The Northern Virginia/Washington DC/Western Maryland Support Group will meet on Saturday April 1st starting at 11AM to 1PM (ish). Join us at the Life with Cancer Schar Cancer Institute, 8411 Pennell St., Fairfax, VA 22031. Outside of Beltway near intersection of I-495 and Rt. 50 (Arlington Blvd.)

We're long overdue to receive an exciting update on the current advances in clinical and laboratory research from the Bing Center for Waldenstrom's Macroglobulinemia (WM) presented by Dr Steven Treon, MD PhD, Professor of Medicine, Harvard Medical School.

This is an opportunity to connect with Dr Treon and Christopher Patterson! So much to learn, so much hope and progress!

To register, please kindly respond to me so we can estimate a headcount. Please pass this message to anyone you feel would be interested especially anyone recently diagnosed or exploring treatment.
